May What's It??

From Len Dupuis - Len's Auction Service: "The antique in the image, I think, is either a salt cellar or sugar bowl. The chain connected to the cherub opens the lid. There also may be a place for a spoon or tongs. Quadruple plate means it's silver plate. This item looks like a Meridan or Toronto silverplate piece."

June What's It??

This "What's It??" comes from Rocky Mountain Antique Mall in Edmonton.

Drop us a line if you know what it is.
