February Stats

We are pleased that the numbers of visitors to antiquesincanada.com continue to rise. Our site received an average of 2400 hits per day this month. This figure is just over 400 higher than January, 2007 and 1400 higher than February 2006.

We Would Like to Hear From You

We are always interested in hearing from you. Please drop us a line (email is great) if:

- you have an antique with an interesting history.
- you have an item that would be good for our "What's It?" column.
- you would like to write an article about your shop.
- you have a question or a comment.

Welcome Angel House Antiques - NEWFOUNDLAND

We are delighted to announce our first listing from the province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Russel and Patricia Floren have an antique shop in the original carriage house of their B & B, Angel House Heritage Inn, in St. John's Newfoundland.

They specialize in late 19th and early 20th century china, clocks, furniture, historical art and silver. Russell, an avid collector, has been dealing in antiques since 2000. His most prized possession from his extensive clock collection is a French regulator dating back to the 1750's. Patricia has incorporated the many antique dishes and vessels that have been purchased for the shop with plants and blossoms culled from the extensive cutting garden on the property. These can be found displayed in the Inn or for purchase in the shop.

Feb - What's It??

Jack Craft, Finer Things Antiques, Halifax, NS, has the answer for February's "What's It?" He says, "I'm going to take a stab at this month's "What's It?" to see if I can get two months in a row. I believe the item you currently have on is an early electric curling iron with its original separate heating element that plugs into a wall socket." Jack, you are correct again. Yes! that's two months in a row!! Thank you.

March - What's It??

Jack has also sent in this very interesting item.

Have you seen one of these before? Do you have an idea of what it might be? Here is a clue ... it is 5 inches long ...let's hear from you!

Do you have an article in your shop that might stump our readers? If so, please send me a picture and we will put it to the test.

Antiques in Canada - New Listings - February

Letters

Marjorie,

Another great issue — thanks for offering such a fine publication. Already looking forward to next month's issue.

Jack Craft

Finer Things Antiques, Halifax, NS

Hi Marjorie,

Just a note to tell you what a great job you are doing. Your February Newsletter looks great as always. You are a hard working lady. Keep up the good work.

Laurie Young

Bayshore Antiques, Kingston, ON

Trembley's Antiques

London, Ontario

Neil and Ruth invite you to their shop to consider additions to your collection and home. They have been a full time business since 1967. Their specialties are in Canadiana, stained glass windows and doors, vintage textiles, clothing and accessories.

They also appreciate the quality and uniqueness from earlier eras and this is reflected in the range of collectables and antiques in their stock-glass, china, primitives, hardware, lighting, retro items, etc.

Green Spot Antiques

Cambridge, Ontario

Greenspot Antiques joins us from Cambridge, Ontario with over 5,000 sq.ft. of great treasures and bargains, open year round. Fresh stock weekly on Crazy Wednesday!

Schomberg Heritage House

Schomberg, Ontario

John Edwards invites you to visit this homestead which has been restored to its almost original state, featuring Georgian, Gothic Revival and Vernacular Traditions. Designated as a Heritage Property, the plaque hangs proudly beside the entrance of this fine example of 19th century architecture.

John's passion for antiques led to his purchase and restoration of this local treasure. In the early 1900's the Homestead was an antique shop and is now again devoted to antiques, chandeliers and collectibles.

"Two stories of antiques and collectibles housed in a breathtaking Ontario heritage Homestead is irresistible to any antique hunter - throw in the prospect of a room devoted to antique chandeliers and you've got the latest must-stop location of any antiquing trip." ("The Woodbridge Advisor" Nov. 24, 2005)

New Look

We have been working hard on a new and improved Antiques in Canada web site. It will be "up" soon. Stay tuned.

Marjorie
